(referred to as "Bosch")

1. Application Of Terms, Quotations and Orders

- 1.1 These Terms, in their present form or as varied in accordance with clause 1.7, together with:
- any accepted Application for Opening of a Credit Account form;
 - the Supplementary Terms of Delivery and Sale for New Zealand (if applicable);
 - all offers, estimates or quotations (Quotations) accepted in accordance with clause 1.3;
 - the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) Trading Terms (if applicable);
 - all product warranties provided by Bosch;
 - all accepted orders placed by a buyer with Bosch for Bosch's products or services (you, your);
 - the power tools schedule (if applicable); and
 - any variation to a document listed in (a) to (g) above, agreed to in writing by you and Bosch,
- constitute the contract (Contract) between Bosch and you pursuant to which Bosch makes all supplies of Bosch products and services to you. The application of these Terms to any order or other arrangement by Bosch to supply products or services to you may only be varied by agreement in writing between you and Bosch.
- 1.2 Quotations given by Bosch are, except to the extent otherwise stated in such document, subject to these Terms.
- 1.3 Any Quotation from Bosch:
- will not bind Bosch or form part of the Contract unless given, or subsequently confirmed, in writing by Bosch and accepted by you through placement of an order;
 - shall remain open for acceptance for a maximum period of 30 days, unless otherwise specified in the Quotation; and
 - may be subject to alteration at any time prior to Bosch accepting an order from you.
- 1.4 An order placed by you will only form part of the Contract when it has been received and accepted by Bosch in writing or by way of delivery of the ordered products or services.
- 1.5 Any terms and conditions contained in any order or other document issued by you will not form part of the Contract unless they are expressly signed and accepted by Bosch's authorised representative.
- 1.6 Accepted orders cannot be cancelled or varied without Bosch's written consent. Bosch reserves the right to correct any significant errors or omissions in its Quotations, order confirmations or invoices.
- 1.7 Except as otherwise agreed in writing, Bosch may amend these Terms at any time with notice in relation to future orders placed by you or with notice prior to acceptance of orders which have already been placed to Bosch, in which latter case you may decide to withdraw your order if you consider such variation would cause detriment to you.
- 1.8 Supply of products or services by Bosch does not create any obligation on Bosch to supply the products or services to you on a continuing basis or at any time in the future. Further, except as otherwise agreed in writing, Bosch reserves the right at any time and without notice to impose a limit on the amount of products you may purchase.
- 1.9 Bosch may, in its discretion, agree that orders may be given by you to Bosch by EDI. If Bosch does so, then (except to the extent otherwise agreed), any EDI transaction will also be governed by EDI Trading Terms located at www.bosch.com.au/terms.
- 1.10 If our products contain software (either contained therein or delivered together with the products), our license conditions shall take precedence; if our products contain open source software (OSS), the respective OSS license conditions shall take precedence over all conflicting license and other conditions relating to the products. We provide these license conditions together with the products and, upon your request, make them available to you in advance.

2. Prices

- 2.1 Except where an order is placed for products or services under a valid and binding Quotation or to the extent otherwise agreed, Bosch reserves the right at any time prior to accepting an order to vary by notice to you, the price of the products or services in which case you may decide to revise or withdraw your order with notice to Bosch.
- 2.2 Except to the extent otherwise stated in the Quotation, Bosch reserves the right prior to acceptance of such order and with notice to you, to add to the quoted price any additional cost incurred by Bosch as a result of:
- any agreed change to order quantities;
 - any relevant increase in exchange rates, costs of labour, parts, materials and other inputs, including, without limitation, energy and other overheads; and
 - in the case where you have provided any goods, tooling or materials for the purpose of Bosch providing the products or services (Your Materials) or any specific instructions or specifications for the products or services, any agreed variation to these.
- 2.3 Bosch may, in its absolute discretion, modify its prices at any time to reflect fluctuation in global fuel prices, delivery costs and other operating costs as deemed appropriate by Bosch.

- 2.4 Unless otherwise stated in the Quotation, prices quoted for export are FCA (Incoterms 2020) dispatch location nominated by Bosch and do not include freight costs, insurance, import duties or government taxes in the destination country, or costs of delivery within the destination country, which are your sole responsibility. In addition, unless otherwise agreed, you assume the responsibility and costs of export formalities.
- 2.5 Each amount quoted by Bosch is the goods and services tax (GST) exclusive amount, unless specifically described as 'GST inclusive'.

3. GST

- 3.1 Words or expressions used in this clause 3 which are defined in the New Tax System, (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) have the same meaning in this clause.
- 3.2 Despite any other clause in these Terms, if a party makes a supply (Supplier) under or in connection with the Contract on which GST is payable (not being a supply the consideration for which is specifically described as 'GST inclusive'):
- the consideration payable or to be provided for that supply but for the application of this clause (GST exclusive consideration) is increased by, and the recipient of the supply (Recipient) must also pay to the Supplier, an amount equal to the GST exclusive consideration multiplied by the prevailing rate of GST (GST Amount); and
 - subject to clauses 3.3 and 19.2, the GST Amount must be paid to the Supplier by the Recipient without set off, deduction or requirement for demand, at the same time as the GST exclusive consideration is payable or to be provided.
- 3.3 The Recipient need not pay the GST Amount in respect of a taxable supply made under or in connection with the Contract until the Supplier has given the Recipient a tax invoice in respect of that taxable supply.

4. Terms of Payment

- 4.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing (by you submitting an Application for Opening of a Credit Account form which is accepted by Bosch) or otherwise stated in any Quotation issued by Bosch, payment must be made by you without set off or deduction by electronic funds transfer to a bank account nominated by Bosch no later than the date of delivery of the products (Due Date). In all instances, Bosch reserves the right to make delivery of the products conditional upon contemporaneous payment, payment of progress claims or, subject to Schedule 2 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) and the corresponding provisions of the applicable state Fair Trading Acts (Australian Consumer Law), on pre-payment of the price.
- 4.2 If you fail to make a payment by the Due Date, Bosch may:
- charge interest on the overdue account at the rate fixed under section 2 of the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983 (Vic);
 - refuse to make any further deliveries under the Contract until the amount due has been paid; and/or
 - if the amount due remains unpaid after Bosch, providing 7 days' notice to you of such breach, treat your failure to make payments as a repudiation of the Contract by you. Such repudiation shall entitle Bosch to elect, without prejudice to any of its other rights, to terminate the Contract in whole or in part (including any order or part of an order) and, in either case, to recover damages for the breach of the Contract.
- 4.3 Bosch may allocate all amounts received by you in any manner it determines including any manner required to preserve any personal property security interest in the products.

5. Delivery

- 5.1 In the case of supply of products, delivery shall be:
- FCA (Incoterms 2020) at the premises nominated by Bosch, or
 - in the case of export by Bosch, FCA (Incoterms 2020) to the dispatch location nominated by Bosch, and
 - unless the parties agree in writing to alternative delivery arrangements, if you fail or refuse, or indicate to Bosch that you will fail or refuse, to take or accept delivery, then the products shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date when Bosch sought to deliver the products.
- 5.2 In the case of supply of services, delivery shall be deemed to have occurred on completion by Bosch of the agreed services.
- 5.3 The completion or delivery dates specified in any Quotation are estimates only. Bosch is not bound by any completion or delivery dates specified in a Quotation.
- 5.4 Bosch will endeavour to effect delivery in any time stated in writing and otherwise within a reasonable period. Bosch will endeavour to deliver all products the subject of an order at the same time. However, where this is not possible, in order to minimise any detriment that may be caused to you, Bosch will deliver products to you by instalments within a reasonable period of time.
- 5.5 If, at your request, delivery of any products is delayed after notification by Bosch to you that the products are ready for delivery, you agree to pay any reasonable storage costs incurred by Bosch.

- 5.6 If Bosch fails to deliver in accordance with clause 5.4 by reason of:
- inability to obtain supplies of the products (where it is not the manufacturer) or materials or parts from approved sources;
 - import or export restrictions;
 - any strike or combination of worker, shortage of labour or lockout;
 - any fault of yours; or
 - any other event or circumstance beyond the reasonable control of Bosch,

Bosch may at its option cancel any order, the Contract or any unfulfilled part of an order or extend the time for its performance or completion by the time lost because of the event preventing or delaying delivery. Bosch shall not be liable for delay in delivery of the products or services as a result of any of the causes set out in this clause 5.6.

- 5.7 In the case of delivery of products with respect to which it has been agreed to use returnable packaging, packing materials or pallets, you must return to Bosch such items within a reasonable period of time, failing which you may be charged for their replacement cost.

6. Notification of Faults and Returns

- 6.1 You must examine the products supplied by Bosch on delivery or collection.
- 6.2 You shall notify Bosch of any shortfall in the number of products to be supplied under an order within 48 hours of receipt of the products (unless the products are delivered by instalment in accordance with clause 5.4, in which case you shall notify Bosch of any shortfall within 48 hours of receipt of the final instalment of products). Failure to notify Bosch shall result in the loss of any rights you may have against Bosch for the shortage.
- 6.3 You shall within 7 days of each delivery of products, give full particulars in writing to Bosch of any matter or thing in relation to any delivery which is not in accordance with the terms of any order (other than any shortfall to which clause 6.2 applies). Failing such, you shall be bound to pay for the products and, except where you are a Consumer (as that term is defined in the Australian Consumer Law), then the products shall be deemed in all respects to have complied with such order.
- 6.4 Any products that are not defective, not in breach of a Consumer Guarantee (as that term is used in the Australian Consumer Law) or not supplied in error and which otherwise comply with the order may not be returned to Bosch by you for credit, except where agreed by Bosch in writing at its discretion. If Bosch agrees to accept the return of any such products, you agree that the products must be new, undamaged, in a saleable condition and not shopped and that Bosch may deduct any reasonable costs it has incurred in processing the return.

7. Risk

- 7.1 Products shall be at your risk upon you or your agent or carrier taking physical possession of the products.
- 7.2 Bosch shall not be liable for any such loss, deterioration or damage caused to the products after risk passing.

8. Property

- 8.1 Except where otherwise agreed, any tooling acquired, created or commissioned by Bosch for the purpose of supplying any products to you and any other signage, sample product, equipment or other goods loaned to you by Bosch from time to time will remain the property of Bosch.
- 8.2 Title in products supplied by Bosch will only pass to you upon you paying, in cleared funds, to Bosch the full purchase price of all products supplied to you by Bosch under the order and any other sums outstanding from you to Bosch under the Contract.
- 8.3 If you:
- default in paying any sums due to Bosch under any order; or
 - are an individual and become insolvent, bankrupt, commit any act of bankruptcy, compound with or enter into any compromise or arrangement with your creditors or if a mortgagee takes possession of any of your assets; or
 - are a company and have a provisional liquidator, liquidator, receiver, receiver and manager, trustee for creditors or in bankruptcy, administrator or analogous person appointed to you or your property, or if a mortgagee takes possession of any of your assets; or
 - are otherwise unable to pay your debts as and when they fall due, any amount to become due under the Contract shall become immediately due and payable and you shall not sell or otherwise deal with any products in your possession and, upon Bosch's request, you will return the products to Bosch immediately.
- 8.4 Subject to clause 8.3, you are authorised to sell the products in the ordinary course of business and shall hold the proceeds of any sales separately from your own moneys and Bosch has a security interest in those proceeds, provided that such authority may be revoked by notice from Bosch at any time if Bosch considers your creditworthiness to be unsatisfactory or if you are in default in the performance of your obligations under the Contract or any other agreement between Bosch or any of its related body corporate as that term is defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Related Company) and you. Such authority shall be deemed automatically revoked if you satisfy clause 8.3.
- 8.5 You shall, if required by Bosch, store separately those products in respect of which title is retained by Bosch and shall clearly identify such products as the property of Bosch. Bosch shall, upon revoking its authority contained in clause 8.4 or such authority being automatically revoked under clause 8.3, have the irrevocable right to enter upon the premises where the products are situated, or where Bosch suspects the products are situated, without committing a trespass and take possession of and remove the products (or in accordance with clause 8.6, any products owned by you into which they become incorporated) even though they may have been attached to other goods or land which is not your property, and to use your name and to act on your behalf to recover possession of Bosch's products. You will remain liable to Bosch for the price of any damaged, used, incomplete, broken or obsolete products that Bosch determines have no commercial value or are unable to be resold and for the difference in the original purchase price agreed by you from actual resale value. Bosch may also require you to pay its reasonable costs in exercising any of its rights under this clause 8.5 together with any related costs such as transportation, repackaging or any other relevant loss suffered or incurred by it as a result of exercising its rights under this clause.

- 8.6 If the products in which title is held by Bosch are to become a fixture or fittings of any real property owned by you or any other person, you acknowledge, or where you do not own the real property to which the products are to be affixed, shall procure the owner to acknowledge, and in either case shall procure any mortgagee of such real property to acknowledge that, notwithstanding such incorporation, such products remain the property of Bosch until title in the products passes to you, and that all rights of Bosch set out in these Terms remain.

9. Personal Property Securities Register

- 9.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
- the Contract constitutes a security agreement;
 - in accordance with clause 8 of these Terms, you grant Bosch a security interest (as defined in the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) (PPSA)) in all products supplied by Bosch and the proceeds thereof as security for payment of the purchase price of the products and services and all other moneys payable to Bosch by you;
 - Bosch may apply to register and register any security interests created under the Contract on public registers including the Personal Property Securities Register (as defined in the PPSA) (PPSR) at any time before or after delivery of the products by Bosch;
 - Bosch may use and/or disclose any information provided by you to register any security interest on public registers. Such disclosure is only authorised to the extent necessary in connection with an exercise of rights under the Contract or a transfer or other dealing with rights or obligations under the Contract, or to Bosch's officers, employees, agents, contractors, legal and other advisors and auditors, or in accordance with your consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) or as required by any law (other than section 275(1) of the PPSA unless section 275(7) of the PPSA applies) or as required by any stock exchange or rating agency;
 - you will do anything that Bosch requires and will promptly give Bosch all assistance and information (including signing any documents) as it requests to ensure that Bosch has a perfected first ranking security interest in all products supplied by it to you (and the proceeds thereof);
 - Bosch need not give you any notice unless such notice is required by the PPSA and cannot be excluded;
 - if Chapter 4 of the PPSA would otherwise apply to the enforcement of the security interest created under this Contract, the following provisions of the PPSA do not apply: section 95; subsection 121(4); section 125; section 130; paragraph 132(3)(d); subsection 132(4); section 135; section 142; and section 143;
 - you will not change your name without notifying Bosch in writing at least 10 business days prior to doing so; and
 - you must indemnify Bosch for any costs incurred by it under this clause 9.
- 9.2 You and Bosch agree that, without limiting Bosch's rights under clause 8.3, neither party will disclose any of the information set out in section 275(1) of the PPSA in relation to any security interest created under the Contract to any person (except that Bosch may do so where required due to the operation of section 275(7) of the PPSA).

10. Insurance

- 10.1 Until property in the products passes to you, you shall keep the products insured, with Bosch noted as an additional insured and will produce upon demand evidence of the existence of such insurance as Bosch may require. If you default in the performance of your obligations under this clause 10, Bosch may insure the products and the cost of effecting such insurance shall be payable by you on demand.
- 10.2 If any products are damaged or destroyed prior to property in them passing to you, Bosch shall be entitled, without prejudice to any of its rights or remedies under these Terms, to receive all insurance proceeds which are payable in respect thereof (whether or not the purchase price of such products has become payable under these Terms) and the production of these Terms by Bosch shall be sufficient evidence of its right to receive payment of such insurance proceeds without the need for further enquiry by any person dealing with Bosch. Any such insurance proceeds shall be applied by Bosch as follows:
- first, in payment of the purchase price of the products which are damaged or destroyed, if unpaid;
 - secondly, in payment of the outstanding purchase price of any other products supplied to you by Bosch, whether under these Terms or otherwise; and
 - thirdly, in payment of any other sums payable to Bosch by you whether under these Terms or otherwise.

11. Intellectual Property

- 11.1 All intellectual property rights in or relating to products or services supplied by Bosch, including in relation to the development, manufacture, use, operation, repair or maintenance of the products, and in or in relation to any Bosch-licensed, commissioned or created tooling, materials, drawings, samples, reports, work results and other documents, remains at all times the sole and exclusive property of Bosch or its licensor.
- 11.2 Except where you are a Consumer and the claim arises as a result of Bosch's breach of a Consumer Guarantee to you, Bosch is not liable for - any claims arising from an actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights where:

- (a) such claim arises due to Bosch agreeing to supply the product or services in accordance with your specifications or using Your Materials;
 - (b) the actual or alleged infringement of the intellectual property rights is due to use of Bosch's product in conjunction with another product not supplied by Bosch;
 - (c) the products or work results produced by Bosch in providing the services are used in a way which could not have been foreseen by Bosch, or
 - (d) (in the case of patents) unless at least one intellectual property right from the property right family has been published under the European Patent Office or in one of the following countries: Germany, France, Great Britain, Austria or the USA.
- 11.3 If Bosch supplies any products or services in accordance with your specifications or using Your Materials, you shall indemnify Bosch from and against all actions, claims, demands, costs, expenses and liabilities arising in connection with any alleged or actual infringement of the intellectual property rights of a third party.
- 11.4 You shall not, and shall ensure that your officers, employees or agents do not:
- (a) use any trademark owned or licensed by Bosch, or any substantially identical or misleadingly similar words, in a company name, business name, domain name or email address;
 - (b) apply to register a company name, business name or domain name which incorporates any trademark owned or licensed by Bosch, or any substantially identical or misleadingly similar words;
 - (c) use any logo, mark or any other promotional material owned by or licensed to Bosch in any promotional materials without its prior written consent, and only then subject to Bosch's directions in relation to any use of the trademarks which may be published at www.bosch.com.au/terms as amended from time to time; or
 - (d) do anything which a reasonable person should identify is likely to unreasonably damage the reputation of Bosch or any of its trademarks or products or services.
- 12. Express Warranties
- 12.1 This clause 12 will not apply to a Consumer. Any warranty against defects (as this term is defined under the Australian Consumer Law) which is offered by Bosch to a Consumer will be provided in the product warranty (if any) separately supplied with the product, which is in addition to (and not in limitation of) any rights a Consumer may have under the Australian Consumer Law.
- 12.2 This clause does not apply in respect of any consumable or accessory products sold by Bosch. This clause does not apply to supplies of the kind referred to in clause 15, except to the extent specifically stated in that clause.
- 12.3 Bosch warrants to you that products or services sold by it to you for use or resale in Australia or New Zealand (or other country as may be agreed by Bosch in writing for the purpose of this warranty) conform to the agreed specifications (subject to clause 12.4) and are free from material faults and defects (subject to clause 12.5).
- 12.4 With respect to products developed or manufactured by Bosch for your particular requirements and which are not the subject of published product specifications issued by Bosch, Bosch does not warrant measurements, dimensions, weights, and drawings provided for products but only that the products will conform to agreed tolerance standards.
- 12.5 The warranty that products are free from material faults and defects will not apply to the extent any defect cannot be discovered due to the state of scientific or technical knowledge or has been disclosed as a feature or limitation of the products in any product specifications published by Bosch.
- 12.6 With the exception of any products that may have been sold by Bosch to you by description or sample, Bosch does not warrant that the products shall conform to that description or sample and products shall be accepted by you even though alterations in design or construction have been introduced by Bosch between the date of the description or provision of the sample and delivery of the product to you.
- 12.7 Bosch assumes a warranty of fitness for a particular purpose with respect to a product supplied by it only if such particular purpose has been expressly stated in writing by you, and Bosch has expressly accepted a warranty of fitness for such purpose.
- 12.8 The duration (and any other details) of the express warranties referred to in this clause shall be agreed upon a product-specific basis. Unless otherwise agreed by Bosch in writing, the express warranties in this clause shall apply:
- (a) in the case of products: as specified in the Quotation for the supply of such product to you, or if no warranty period is so specified, for a period of 6 months, from the date of delivery of the products to you. However, in no case shall these express warranties to you extend beyond the date you sell or otherwise dispose of the product; or
 - (b) in the case of services: for a period of 6 months after delivery of the services.
- 12.9 Claims under the express warranties provided under this clause 12 must be made with Bosch's Service Centre or in writing to Bosch within 7 days of such claim arising. Repair or replacement shall not extend nor renew the warranty period.
- 12.10 The express warranties in relation to products under this clause 12 shall not apply to a defect which it arises:
- (a) due to storage, handling or installation of the products other than in accordance with instructions provided by Bosch or without reasonable care;
 - (b) due to operation, use or maintenance of the products other than in accordance with instructions provided by Bosch or without reasonable care;
- (c) due to repairs, alterations or modifications to the products which have been performed by a third party, or due to the use of any spare parts not manufactured, sold or approved by Bosch in connection with repairs, alterations or modifications of the products, which occurred without Bosch's authorisation;
 - (d) due to accidental damage or to use of the products for a purpose or in environmental conditions for which the products were not designed or sold or use of the product outside the specified or normal operating ranges for such products;
 - (e) as a result of changes which occur in the condition or operational qualities of the products due to climate or other environmental influence, foreign material contamination or water entry;
 - (f) from normal wear and tear or when replacement or repair of parts would be part of normal maintenance or service of the products (such as in the case of spark plugs, lenses, globes and glassware, bushes, bearings, drive assemblies, ignition contact sets, caps, rotors, condensers, brushes, fuses and similar parts) or where the damage is only to surface coating, varnish and enamel; or
 - (g) from, or is attributable to, Your Materials or your specifications or instructions for the products or services,
- nor will the express warranties in relation to products under this clause 12 apply in cases where the products suffer damage caused by continued use of the products after it is known they are defective.
- 12.11 If requested by Bosch, you shall return to Bosch any products claimed to be defective under clause 12 or 13 of these Terms. If the products are found to be defective, Bosch will bear your reasonable expenses in making the warranty claim, including the reasonable cost of transport for returning the defective products to Bosch.
- 13. Product Recall
- 13.1 You agree to inform Bosch as soon as possible if you believe that any product supplied by Bosch may be unsafe or hazardous or does not conform, in whole or in part, with the technical specifications (if any) provided for in an order or other mandatory specifications imposed by law (Non-Conforming Product). You will also notify Bosch as soon as possible after you have been informed of incidents, accidents, or property damage allegedly caused by Non-Conforming Products.
- 13.2 The parties acknowledge and agree that Non-Conforming Products may need to be recalled. Subject to any applicable law, the parties shall consult with each other in respect to:
- (a) a product recall prior to instituting any recall campaign, in particular any campaign in relation to which you may seek reimbursement from Bosch under this clause 13; and
 - (b) any response to inquiries from any Federal or State agency relating to the Non-Conforming Products.
- 13.3 Each of the parties will cooperate with, and provide reasonable assistance to, the other party in investigating any allegation(s) that a product is a Non-Conforming Product. If requested, you shall provide to Bosch all relevant information available to you regarding an alleged Non-Conforming Product including reports, tests witness statements and, where possible, the Non-Conforming Product in question for the purpose of inspection and testing. No party is required to disclose material or documents which attract legal professional privilege.
- 13.4 In the event of a recall campaign, Bosch shall negotiate a fair and mutually acceptable reimbursement for all direct recall related expenses in respect of the Non-Conforming Products. This is subject to clause 14 and on the understanding that the portion of the expenses to be borne by Bosch shall be proportional to the degree to which the nonconformity of the products sold by Bosch caused the recall.
- 14. Exclusion of Liability
- 14.1 Except for those rights and remedies that you have in respect of the products and services under the Australian Consumer Law which cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified, all warranties, conditions and guarantees, whether statutory or otherwise, are excluded in relation to the products and services.
- 14.2 Subject to clause 14.3, Bosch's liability to you in respect of all claims, actions, demands, proceedings, liabilities, damages, amounts, costs and expenses arising, paid, suffered or incurred by you (directly or indirectly) as a result of or in connection with a negligent act or omission of Bosch, any breach or non-performance of any express or implied obligation of Bosch under these Terms or a Contract or in any way related to the products or services or information or advice supplied in respect of the products and services shall be limited, at Bosch's option:
- (a) in the case of the products (or parts thereof) to the repair or replacement of the products (or the parts) or the supply of equivalent products (or parts) or the payment of the cost of having the products (or parts) repaired or replaced or having equivalent products (or parts) supplied and,
 - (b) in the case of services, to supplying the services again or paying the cost of having the services supplied again.
- 14.3 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 14.4, Bosch excludes any liability for legal costs and disbursements on a solicitor and own client basis and, without limitation, any indirect or consequential expense, loss or damage, loss of profits, revenue, use, expectation or opportunity, wasted expenditure, lost production or similar losses suffered by you under or in connection with these Terms.
- 14.4 If you are a Consumer, the liability of Bosch will not be limited in the way set out in clause 14.3 if it is not 'fair and reasonable' for Bosch to rely on such limitations in accordance with sections 64A(3) and (4) of the Australian Consumer Law, the products and services supplied are goods or services 'of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption' as that expression is used in section 3 of the Australian Consumer Law or in relation to any Consumer Guarantee pursuant to sections 51, 52 and 53 of the Australian Consumer Law.

- 14.5 Insofar as any breach of an express warranty under clause 12 is concerned, Bosch shall also repair or replace any other product (or part) supplied by it damaged as a result of the defective product.
- 14.6 Without limitation to any other right Bosch may have under these Terms, you agree that in respect of Bosch, its officers, employees and agents you will be liable for any claims, suits, actions, demands, loss, costs, liabilities, expenses (including reasonable legal expenses), judgments or awards made against or incurred by any such persons arising from a breach of these Terms or the Contract on the part of you, your agents, employees, principals and/or contractors.
- 15. Third Party Products On-Sold By Bosch
- 15.1 Subject to any rights a Consumer may have under the Australian Consumer Law, where the products sold to you by Bosch under these Terms are not manufactured by Bosch nor are sold under a name, brand or mark under which Bosch carries on business:
- the products are as described on the order;
 - all specifications, drawings, and particulars of weights and dimensions submitted to you, whether contained in catalogues, price lists or other advertising matter, are approximate only and do not form part of the Contract or form part of the description applied to the products;
 - Bosch shall not be liable for any alteration or variation in the products from such published specifications which are made available with respect to the products;
 - with the exception of clauses 12.6 and 12.7, clause 12 of these Terms does not apply; and
 - Bosch agrees to assign to you, on your request, the benefit of any warranty that the manufacturer has granted to Bosch under any contract or by implication or operation of law to the extent that the benefit of any warranty or entitlement is assignable.
- 16. Export Control and Restricted Products
- 16.1 The sale, resale or other disposition of products and any related technology or documentation are subject to the export control laws, regulations and orders of Australia and may be subject to the export and/or import control laws and regulations of other countries. You agree to comply with all such laws, regulations and orders and acknowledge that you shall not directly or indirectly export any products to any country to which such export or transmission is restricted or prohibited. You acknowledge your responsibility to obtain any license to export, re-export or import as may be required.
- 16.2 Bosch shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising from controls referred to in clause 16.1 or any other restrictions imposed on the resale or use of the products by other legislation.
- 16.3 If the manufacture or use or sale of the products shall be forbidden or restricted by any competent government authority, any costs or expenses incurred by Bosch in connection with any contract for manufacture, use or sale shall be paid by you.
- 17. Termination
- 17.1 Bosch may terminate or suspend the Contract (or any part thereof, including any order or part of any order) if you are in breach of:
- the Contract, and you remain in breach after receiving 7 days notice from Bosch of such breach;
 - any other agreement with Bosch or a Related Company, and you remain in breach after receiving 7 days notice from Bosch of such breach; or
 - in the event a default is triggered under clause 8.3(b) to (d).
- 17.2 You must, and warrant that you will:
- comply with all applicable laws in relation to the conduct of your business including laws relating to anti-money laundering, bribery and corruption;
 - ensure that your actions or omissions do not cause Bosch to be in breach of any applicable laws; and
 - immediately notify Bosch of any breach of this clause 17.2.
